

TROPICAL TWISTER COMING OVER GULF; GENERAL WARNING ISSUED TO SHIPPERS

(International News Service.)
Mobile, Oct. 17.—Shipping of every description is scurrying into gulf ports on account of the tropical hurricane which is reported to be in the Gulf of Mexico, and headed west. More than 100 fishing boats have put into Biloxi, Miss., for safety. Fear is felt for the big freighters now in the gulf en route to Europe.

STORM WARNING ISSUED.
(International News Service.)
Washington, Oct. 17.—The weather bureau today issued the following storm warning:
Carrabelle, Fla., to Bay St. Louis, La.
Tropical disturbances are apparently moving northward across the Gulf of Mexico and will cause northerly gales along the gulf coast. All shipping is advised to remain in port and all interests on the coast are warned to take necessary precautions.

PEACE PARLEYS ON AT BAYONNE N. J.

EFFORT BEING MADE TO SETTLE STRIKE THAT HAS RESULTED IN BLOODSHED.

(International News Service.)
Bayonne, N. J., Oct. 17.—After a night of unrest and firing by snipers, rioting growing out of the Standard Oil Company's strike was renewed early today.

Two pitched battles were fought between strikers and policemen and another attempt was made to set fire to the Tidewater plant. A crisis in the strike is looked for today when representatives of the idle employees are to call upon Standard Oil officials at the company's New York offices.

The strikers have split into two sections, those who are willing to aid in bringing about a peaceful settlement and those who are resolved to force the company to meet their demands.

Conferences looking toward a settlement of the strike began at 8 o'clock today when a committee of strikers met Geo. Hennessy, general superintendent of the oil company here. Statements given out by both sides just before the conferences began were pessimistic.

STRIKERS' DEMANDS ABOUT ARE TURNED DOWN.

Bayonne, Oct. 17.—A flat turn down of the strikers' demands and subsequent threats of violence by the employees in case of "undue" police interference were the net results of the conference today between a committee of strikers and Geo. B. Hennessy, superintendent of the Standard Oil plant here. Participation by the f. w. w. in the strike agitation loomed up this afternoon, when the police learned a number of the leading members of the organization are headed for Bayonne. "Mother" Jones also is said to be on the way here.

Hot Weather For Fall Month Recorded Monday

WILSON'S EFFORTS TO HELP POLAND FAILED THUS FAR

PRESIDENT'S STATEMENT SAYS
EUROPEAN POWERS ARE UN-ABLE TO AGREE.

(International News Service.)
Shadow Lawn, Oct. 17.—President Wilson's efforts to get assistance from foreign rulers for starving Poland have failed. The president today issued a statement announcing the failure of his plea.
The statement follows: "I have now received replies from the king of England, the president of France, the emperor of Germany, the emperor of Russia and the emperor of Austria to my letter of July 20, 1916, in which I tendered the friendly offices of this government in negotiations looking to first consideration of the possibility and method for relieving Poland. It appears, I regret to say, that there are still important differences between the allied and central powers as to the terms under which relief may be sent to Poland. I am disappointed that I have not yet been successful in inducing the powers to conclude a definite settlement."

Cotton Continues to Climb Towards Twenty Cent Mark

The upward climb of cotton to the 20-cent mark predicted by optimists earlier in the season continued today, with the staple selling for $1.25 per bale more than on yesterday. Cotton was sold on the streets today for $17.75 which was the highest price paid in Alabama. The local buyers are keeping half a cent ahead of the market. The quotations are bona fide, same to all customers and are not merely those offered by supply firms to planters whom they have furnished.

Expect Cullman County In Democratic Column

Solicitor D. C. Almon Among Speakers to Stump for Democrats.

At the invitation of the Cullman county democratic executive committee, Solicitor D. C. Almon will leave tomorrow for a speaking tour of the county in the interest of the democratic county, state and national tickets. He will be accompanied by Gen. W. W. Brandon. Speeches will be made tomorrow at Arkadelphia and Coal Creek and dates have also been arranged for the remainder of the week.

Democrats are hopeful that Cullman county will go democratic this year from constable to president. The county now has two republican county officials, the tax collector and tax assessor. The democrats are trying to make a clean sweep of all the offices this year, although the county is a battle ground between the democracy and the G. O. P. It is believed that the county will go for Wilson for president and Burnett for congress also.

In the meantime, no reception committees have been named and no preparations made for the entertainment of the visitors. Those wishing to assist in the matter are urged to get into quick communication with Mr. Crawford.

Mr. Editor:
The above is the amount that has been subscribed by the people of Albany, Ala., to the national democratic campaign for the re-election of Woodrow Wilson as president. The national democratic committee say that we are in great need of funds to send speakers into the doubtful states. They say, "We are at the beginning of the critical period of the campaign. Time is now the important element.

Less than one month remains. We must have action, and have it quick. We can overcome anything except delay. Don't think the campaign will be won by the other fellow. It won't. It must be won by you. Are you doing your full part?"

There is nothing that is more vital to the interest of all the people than the re-election of Woodrow Wilson. He is the only hope in sight for the continuation of a government for the people. Big business is against him because he is for the best interest of all of the people. Big business wants a government that will make them rich by law, so that they may not have to labor for it. The great body of the people, as represented by Woodrow Wilson, simply want equal opportunities under the law. Let every lover of "equal rights to all men and special privileges to none" subscribe at once through the Albany-Decatur Daily or through the undersigned to the Wilson campaign fund. It would seem that almost every one could give $1.00 to such a cause. Be sure you give what you can and give it at once.

Yours for the re-election of Woodrow Wilson.

SAMUEL BLACKWELL,
Chairman Finance Committee.

Girard Editor Held on Forgery Charge

I. I. Moses Alleged to Have Obtained Pension Money Fraudulently.

Girard, Oct. 17.—I. I. Moses, prominent Russell county politician and publisher of the Phenix-Girard Journal, was arrested Saturday and placed under $1,000 bond for his appearance at the next term of the Russell circuit court on two counts, each charging forgery. The specific charge is that pension warrants have been issued to certain parties who had died and that these warrants had been delivered to the Girard publisher for delivery, according to custom of Judge Benton, and the warrants had been indorsed and cashed by Mr. Moses. It is thought that another special term of the circuit court will be ordered by Judge Anderson to try these and the other Girard cases, and that Supernumerary Judge A. H. Alston will again be in Russell at an early date to hold court.

Unless some changes occur in the Russo-Japanese demands the United States will intercede.

Last Opportunity to Find Your Name

So search most carefully all through the personals, advertisements and general news items of today's Albany-Decatur Daily, and see if your name is among the list. This is the big opening night of Booster Week at the Masonic, and keep in mind that if your name appears in this issue of the Daily or if it appeared in Monday or Saturday's issue, you will have a chance at the crisp dollar bills, which are to be given away tonight. It is required that you be in the theatre with a copy of the Daily in your hand when your name is called out in order to win. There's not to be just one dollar bill given away, but several, so look for your name.

Everybody enjoys good, wholesome entertainment. Big surprises and special features will be introduced every day of Booster Week which will give much pleasure and create much wholesome laughter.

In addition to a large number of home pictures and splendid reels being shown each day, there will be many screamingly funny contests, none being better than the Charlie Chaplin contest, which will be pulled off tomorrow night. Boys, get your costumes together.

Shows Coat Made by President Johnson

(International News Service.)
Chicago, Oct. 17.—A coat that was made by a former president of the United States, stitch by stitch and seam by seam, was proudly shown today by Major H. T. Blackhall, of Chicago. Ninety-four years ago, then an illiterate youth of 20, made the coat in a little tailor shop in Raleigh, N. C., for General McClanahan. Years later the tailor boy became president. His name was Andrew Johnson. Blackhall married McClanahan's daughter and thus has inherited the coat.

VIOLENT FIGHTING ON SOMME FRONT

British Troops Three Miles From Bapaume and French Only Two Miles Farther off

RUSSIANS ARE DEFEATED.
(International News Service.)
Berlin, Oct. 17.—A crushing defeat of the Russian armies attacking the Lemberg defense lines was announced by the war office this afternoon. The Teutons took Russian trenches on a front of a mile and a half, taking 1,900 prisoners and ten machine guns.

Germany is engaged in the gigantic task of attempting two counter offensives simultaneously in separate theatres of war. In France the Teutons are struggling to check the encircling movement of the allies at Bapaume. At the southern end of the east front the Austro-German armies have begun a drive against the Russo-Rumanian forces, evidently to get between the Russian and Rumanian armies. The German allies have lost ground in Rumania. It is reported from Petrograd that Von Mackensen's army has been rolled back 40 miles, but the report lacks official confirmation. There is no let up in the struggle on the Macedonian front.

(International News Service.)
London, Oct. 17.—Following the formal recognition of the revolutionary government in Greece by the allies, the Daily Mail suggested today that the Greek kingdom be transformed into a republic. This paper says that Gen. Sarraff, commander-in-chief of the allies in Macedonia, favors the idea, as also do many European statesmen. It is intimated that if King Constantine is deposed the presidency would be offered to M. Venizelos, head of the revolutionary movement.

VIOLENT FIGHTING REPORTED FROM THE SOMME FRONT.

(International News Service.)
London, Oct. 17.—Violent fighting was in progress all night on the Somme front. West and south of Bapaume the British and French kept pounding the Germans in their encircling movement to "pocket" Bapaume.

German counter attacks were followed by tremendous bombardments of the French position in Sailly-Saillies.

The next objective of the French in that sector is Le Transloy.

British troops are pushing on Le Barque, also on the Bapaume-Albert turnpike. They are meeting with stern resistance. Only three miles separate the British from their prize, Bapaume, while the French are five miles away.

On the eastern front the Germans have sent reinforcements into the Carpathians for a counter offensive. Terrific fighting is in progress all along the front in the Rumanian theatre of war.

BULGARS HURL FIERCE ATTACKS AGAINST SERBS.

(International News Service.)
Paris, Oct. 17.—Bulgarian troops holding the road to the Macedonian city of Monastir have been making strong attacks against the Serbians in the past twenty-four hours, the French war office announced today. In spite of the vigor of the assaults all were repulsed.

Paris, Oct. 17.—Beating off violent German counter attacks the French have made fresh progress on the Somme front. The war office announced today that

PADUCAH IS QUIET AFTER LYNCHING

(International News Service.)
Paducah, Ky., Oct. 17.—Today found Paducah quiet and danger of a race riot believed to have been averted as a result of a day and night of virtual martial law following the public lynching yesterday of two negroes. Saloons have been closed since and special policemen have patrolled the streets. Talk of visiting vengeance upon other negroes for an attack upon a white woman which one of the lynched men was accused of, is dying down.

Hughes Says Wilson Has Neglected Farmers

(International News Service.)
Mitchell, S. D., Oct. 17.—Chas. E. Hughes told 5,000 South Dakota farmers here today that the Wilson administration had "woefully neglected" their interest, even while it was "reckless and extravagant" with government funds. Gov. Hughes made his address in a "palace" built entirely of corn. It held 5,000 farmers and could have held more. "What the farmers of this country need is a protective tariff," declared Mr. Hughes. "It is idle to suppose that departmental activity can make up for lack of governmental protection. The Underwood tariff act has failed and with its failure has gone the pledges of the administration."

Negro Boy of Nine Shoots Friend and Goes to Reformatory

Amarine Anderson, a negro youth of nine tender summers, who went on the warpath with a shotgun, puncturing the throat and face of Chas. Rice, another pickaninny, was sent to the Ft. Meigs reformatory by Judge William E. Skeggs, in juvenile court. The boy claimed that he shot his companion accidentally, but the court was skeptical as to this.

A little negro boy from Florence, charged with burglary, was carried to the reform school along with Anderson.

MR. HUGHES DENIES THAT HE IS FOR WAR.

Mr. Charles Evans Hughes, the "100 per cent candidate" of the republican party for the high office of president has been troubled throughout his campaign by a paucity of issues. He has not been sufficiently honest to approve of any of the Wilson policies, yet he has been so fearful of losing votes that he has hedged and trimmed until he does not know just where he stands today or what he will advocate tomorrow.

At the beginning Mr. Hughes clamored for war, not that he especially desired to plunge the nation into hostilities in its present condition of unpreparedness—thanks to the lack of foresight of such republican presidents as Roosevelt and Taft—but that he had an ingrowing desire to oppose the Wilson doctrine. What Hughes was afraid to say in advocacy of Martineau's method he had his running mate—Col. Roosevelt—to say. Between the pair, the electorate was given some fine mental pictures of a red blooded manhood that licked every nation under the sun without special effort, and then clamored for more nations to lick, merely to keep its moral tone up to normal.

Mr. Wilson accepted this war issue. He went before the country in campaign times and advocated peace just as boldly and just as consistently as he did during the earlier years of his regime. "Wilson and peace" became the democratic slogan, one that found favor with the men who vote and with the mothers who do not vote, as well as with the mothers who do. Hughes has at last found out that peace is popular. Being nothing but a "100 per cent candidate," having no moral stamina and no ideas of his own, he has at last tacked before the political winds, and in his address yesterday sounded a different note. "We are told that we must desire war. A more bankrupt justification I cannot imagine. A more preposterous suggestion I cannot conceive!" In this language did the heroic exponent of belligerent methods clamor for that for which Wilson has always stood—peace. How gleefully this belated flirtation with the peace bird must have been received by those jingoistic bryhens who expect to see the United States allied with Germany! How cheerfully must this plaintive appeal for inaction have been welcomed in those select circles that own mining property in Mexico that they want developed under an American protectorate!

What the American voter would like to know is just where Mr. Hughes does stand. Is he for peace, or is he for war? What is his attitude toward ruthless submarine warfare? What would he do with the Mexican problem? Does he favor American neutrality? Does he believe that diplomacy is the best weapon with which to fight American battles at this time? Does he endorse or repudiate the jingoistic declamations of Roosevelt? Until he answers these questions, the "100 per cent candidate" cannot convince the voters that the coupling of his name with those of the Kaiser and Teddy and Mars is "preposterous."

DEMOCRATIC HOPES BRIGHTER; HOW CAN THEY LOSE?

How can they beat Wilson?

This is a question democrats have been asking themselves during the past several weeks.

It can be done in several ways. All the republicans have to do is to carry the normally republican states—which are as strongly republican as the solid south is inclined to democracy—and then dump slush funds into New York, Ohio, Indiana and one or two other big doubtful states. "We have the election won if they don't buy us," as a democrat remarked some years ago during a Cleveland campaign.

If the republicans will keep Mr. Hughes on the stump and not spend more than the usual several millions as a corruption fund, the Daily believes the election is won. Ohio, we believe, will go democratic. There are ample evidences that New York wants to go democratic this year. Indiana is doubtful with the chances favoring the republicans.

President Wilson has the 133 electoral votes of the south. Add to that the eighteen votes of Missouri which is certain to go democratic, the vote of West Virginia which is also assuredly democratic, the vote of Colorado, New Jersey and one or two other small states which are certain for Wilson. One has only to add to that vote the states of New York and Ohio and Wilson has won.

We believe Wilson will win. He has only to keep up his slow but sure gains in all the doubtful states to be elected. Hughes has been steadily going backward.

It would be a calamity to defeat Wilson and we do not believe the voters are going to do it.

TEUTONS.

Teutons, a powerful people of ancient Germany, who probably dwelt on the southern shores of the Baltic, in the vicinity of the Cimbri, together with whom they invaded the dominions of the Roman republic at the close of the second century, B. C., when they were annihilated by Marius. The name Teuton is also applied to the ancient Germans in general, whose language, the parent of modern German, the Dutch and kindred dialects, and the Anglo-Saxon, is therefore called the Teutonic. The latter term is also used (adjectively) of the German race in a limited sense, embracing the Germans, Dutch, etc.

The public school is the only agency that brings opportunity to the door of every child, rich and poor. If you wish your child to go through life on equal terms with other children, then vote for the educational amendment. It gives you the right to have better schools; it does not compel you to have them.

Do you believe in local self government? If you do, then vote for the educational amendment to the state constitution which gives you the right to fix the amount you want to pay for the support of the public schools.

Of course Mr. Hughes will charge that President Wilson raised the price of cotton purely through a partisan desire to aid the South.

The near approach of Nov. 7 reminds us of the old typewriter practice sentence: "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party."

We surmise that the Hughes special train of women campaigners is about as important politically as Coxey's army was.

And the Jackson highway pathfinders passed us up. Probably a case of our route being "the straight and narrow way."

Bernhardt is in America to give her nineteenth last farewell tour.

Voice of the People

Editor Albany-Decatur Daily:

The hope has been expressed that a memorial might be established to commemorate the loyalty and devotion of southern women. A fitting recognition of their services and the most expressive and enduring monument would be the giving of the elective franchise to women as a gift of gratitude. There can be no greater testimony of admiration than the gift of freedom, and freedom conferred upon southern women by southern men would have a meaning far more significant than a monument of bronze or marble. A memorial in the form of the franchise would be a suitable recognition of the services of women, as enduring as the existence of our nation as a unit among the nations of the world; but it would be more, much more than this, it would be a recognition of the right of southern women to take their place among the self-governing citizens of the world, the equals of the free women of the west. English men are preparing to reward the women of England by giving them the ballot as an acknowledgment of services rendered during the European war now in progress. The men of Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba and Saskatchewan, already have conferred the vote upon the women of these Canadian states. Are southern men less grateful, less appreciative? Will the women of the South remain arrogantly silent while the men of foreign nations pay to the women of their households this tribute of respect for services willingly accepted?

Second Mortgages on Farms Soon to be Good as First

(International News Service.)

Washington, Oct. 17.—The long standing prejudice against second mortgages on farm land will be a thing of the past when the federal farm loan act is in full operation, the farm loan board announced today.

A careful study of the testimony taken during the board's recent western tour has convinced the members that the farm loan act will make second mortgages as popular investments as first mortgages.

Under the act the government can make loans of only 50 per cent of the value of the land, taking first mortgages. The second mortgage therefore will be secured by as much value as the first, provided there is no discrimination in value. The second mortgages, which will be taken privately, are expected to be paid off before the first mortgage.

"The Parson of Panamint"

From the Story by Peter B. Kyne

Here is a photoplay with real, live-wire, red-blooded people, whose lives are punctuated with punches. How the "lightin' bob-cat" of a parson strikes a western mining town; subdues the bullies; reforms the unrighteous, and proves himself a hero that will live forever in your memory, is graphically portrayed by Dustin Farnum, who is the star of this production.

THOUGHT.

How is it possible to realize such a high hope? It is possible only through the uttermost development of Alabama's human resources. It is possible only by breaking away from the old aristocratic idea that we can become strong or worthy by looking after a few people, whether they are a few blue-blooded people, or a few wealthy people, or a few politically powerful people--and to accept instead the fundamental democratic doctrine that every man must be trained to do his best before any man can do his best; that no man can prosper save as the average man in the community prospers; and that there is but one way whereby we can prosper either as individuals, or as a neighborhood, or as a state, and that is not by dependence upon so-called natural resources, not by dependence upon the education and wealth of a few people, but by the highest possible degree of training and prosperity for everybody--and by everybody I mean every ragged boy and every calico-dressed little girl, and even the field-hand in the community as well as all the so-called "upper classes."--C. Poe.

SHADOWS.

Through all the park the shadows stray,
I see them down bright vistas creep,
And paint the aisles in lacquered gray.
While on the bosom of yon lake,
Where sunbeams danced a moment since;
See how they dim the sparkling light,
And darken all the golden glints.
Aye, through yon gay and laughing crowd,
Who finger near to catch the strain
That floats from harp and viol now,
And blends with flute its sweet refrain,
These silent shadows come and go
Like spectral guests from some far land,
They take the guise of melody
And marshal straight their mystic band.

Around yon spring so crystal pure;
Ah see the eager, anxious throng--
While hope doth brim the goblet full,
And gaily chant her Circean song.
But even here the shadows gray--
Anon, the sparkling fount ceases,
And steal the brightness from the drops;
And lo! a draught of bitterness.

Dost see yon bower there above,
Where youth and beauty sit apart?
Dost mark the sunshine on her brow?
Canst see the shadow in her heart?
Ah! no, shadows are holy things,
So tenderly shrouded and sharded,
They seem the mystic hiding place
By brightest, laughing beams divined.

And though they stretch their phantom lengths,
O'er all this varied festal scene;
And trace their weird figures on
Lake and bower and velvet green--
Yet only those discern the truth,
These shadows, and their ciphers droll.
Who've walked through sorrow's darkened sphere,
And read from life's mysterious scroll.

French Premier Is Pleased at Prestige of His Fatherland

(International News Service.)
Paris, Oct. 17.—"France's prestige has become great. In fact, it was never greater."
This declaration was made by Premier Briand in a remarkable conversation with Alfred Capus, famous French publicist. The premier was asked when the war would end.
"I cannot say when this conflict will end," replied the premier, "but I will point out that we have already regained the prestige we lost in 1870. On the day that we won the Marne victory all peoples recognized that they had been misjudging our character."

AMUSEMENTS

DUSTIN FARNUM AS "THE PARSON OF PANAMINT" AT DELITE AND STAR WEDNESDAY

Millions have read this wonderful story published first in The Saturday Evening Post, and upon which the Pallas Pictures production of the same name is based. Dustin Farnum as "The Parson of Panamint," has literally immortalized by his screen characterization, one of the most interesting figures in the history of fiction of the great west. The story centers in one of the mushroom mining towns of Nevada of forty years ago. The characters are lovable for their sincerity, their earnestness in trying to conform to the ethics of city government one of which necessitates a parson. And Dustin Farnum, as Philip Pharo, is chosen to purge on Sundays the evils of the week.

The elements of human interest, of history, of tragedy and comedy, as related by "Chuckawalt" Bill form the foundation of a very unusual and wonderful story of the west.

"FAIR AND WARMER."

Selywn & Company will present their latest and greatest farce success, "Fair and Warmer," at the Masonic theatre on Thursday, Oct. 19, in answer to a tremendous demand from all parts of the country that Broadway's favorite play should be put on tour.

"Fair and Warmer" is the merriest of tales, divulged in three acts of drama and high-pitched comedy. It begins with a revelation to two highly respectable and domestic persons—a husband above reproach and below interest, and a wife, a perfect paragon of innocent domesticity, that their respective spouses have been having a time more gay than creditable. The very good pair vow a revenge, and having no experience to guide or to warn them, decide on counter-naughtiness as a suitable course.

They discover that getting into trouble is far easier than getting out of it, and that lacking a practised hand, the consequences of trouble are more apt to behave like a boomerang than a projectile. It is, in brief, precisely the kind of thing Avery Hopwood knows best how to handle, and to interlard with his inimitable shafts of wit, and barbs of social commentary.

SEVERE PUNISHMENT

Of Mrs. Chappell, of Five Years' Standing, Relieved by Cardui.

Mr. Alfry, N. C.—Mrs. Sarah M. Chappell of this town, says: "I suffered for five years with womanly troubles, also stomach troubles, and my punishment was more than any one could tell."

I tried most every kind of medicine, but none did me any good.
I read one day about Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I decided to try it. I had not taken but about six bottles until I was almost cured. It did me more good than all the other medicines I had tried, put together.

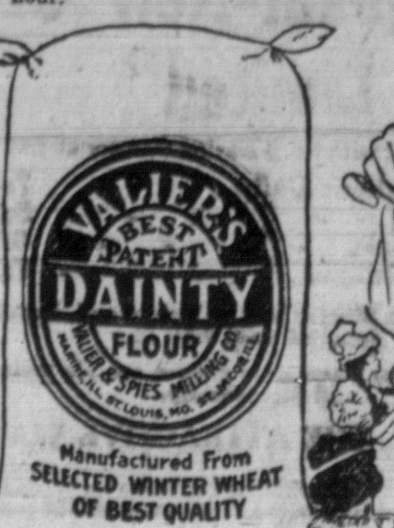

My friends began asking me why I looked so well, and I told them about Cardui. Several are now taking it.
Do you, lady reader, suffer from any of the ailments due to womanly trouble, such as headache, backache, sideache, sleeplessness, and that everlastingly tired feeling?

If so, let us urge you to give Cardui a trial. We feel confident it will help you, just as it has a million other women in the past half century.

Begin taking Cardui to-day. You won't regret it. All druggists.

MEXICAN UPRISING MAY BE HASTENED

AS RESULT OF VICTORY FOR VILLA AT SAN ANDREWS NEAR CHIHUAHUA.

(International News Service.)
 Washington, Oct. 17.—Simultaneously with promises by Ambassador Arrendondo to the American-Mexican commissioners that Carranza is about to launch an extensive campaign against Villa comes the report that Villa has inflicted another crushing defeat on Carranza forces.

This time Villa chastised his enemies at San Andrews, near Chihuahua. This latest victory by Villa, it is said here, will hasten the uprising which is expected in Mexico.

JUDGE CHARLTON DIES AT DALLAS

HIS FATHER, FORMER PROBATE JUDGE OF MORGAN, WAS KILLED BY FEUDISTS.

News has been received here of the death at Dallas, Texas, of Judge William M. Charlton, prominent member of the Dallas bar and former judge of Kaufman county, Texas. Stricken suddenly with apoplexy, Judge Charlton died twenty minutes later.

The dead jurist was a native of Morgan county, and was 66 years of age. He was educated at the Somerville Male Academy and the University of Virginia and when 21 years of age moved to the Lone Star state to live. His father, Judge George Charlton, was probate judge of Morgan county at the time of his death, having been shot from ambush on the river front in 1870. His death was the result of a feud that grew out of the Reconstruction period, and before this internecine warfare was terminated a half dozen men had been killed on either side.

Judge William M. Charlton attained distinction in the state of his adoption. He was elected county judge of Kaufman county in 1881, and later declined the nomination for a second term. For 30 years he was associated with B. F. Word in the practice of law at Terrell and Dallas, Texas, and at one time was tendered the position of assistant attorney general of the state, but declined. Judge Charlton moved to Dallas in 1889, and for the past few years has been engaged in the practice of his profession there with his son, Allen Charlton.

Many friends and relatives in Morgan county will learn with deep regret of the passing of this eminent judge and lawyer.

RINGLING BROS. COMING THIS WAY.

Announcement is made that on Saturday, Oct. 28, Ringling Bros. circus will give afternoon and night performances at Huntsville.

The famous showmen are this season presenting an all new and wonderful program. The tremendous fairland spectacle, "Cinderella," will appeal to both young and old. More than 1000 persons take part in it. It is easily the biggest spectacle Ringling Bros. have ever staged and its glorious "Ballet of the Fairies," with 300 dancing girls, is in itself worth going many miles to see. Following "Cinderella" 400 acrobatic artists appear in the main tent program. Because of the great European war the Ringlings have secured scores of circus performers never before seen in America. An entire trained animal show has been made a part of the main tent program this season. The menagerie now numbers 1,009 wild animals. The elephants, including "Big Bingo," the earth's largest pachyderm, have been increased to 41 and almost 800 horses are carried. There will be 60 clowns and a big free three-mile street parade show day morning.

Most Eminent Medical Authorities Endorse It.

Dr. Eberle and Dr. Braithwaite as well as Dr. Simon—all distinguished authorities—agree that whatever may be the disease, the urine seldom fails in furnishing us with a clue to the principles upon which it is to be treated, and accurate knowledge concerning the nature of disease can thus be obtained. If backache, scalding urine or frequent urination bother or distress you, or if uric acid in the blood has caused rheumatism, gout or sciatica or you suspect kidney or bladder trouble just write Dr. Pierce at the Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N.Y.; send a sample of urine and describe symptoms. You will receive free medical advice after Dr. Pierce's chemist has examined the urine—this will be carefully done without charge, and you will be under no obligation. Dr. Pierce during many years of experimentation has discovered a new remedy which he finds is thirty-seven times more powerful than lithia in removing uric acid from the system. If you are suffering from backache or the pains of rheumatism, go to your best druggist and ask for a 50-cent box of "Anuria" put up by Dr. Pierce. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak women and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the blood have been favorably known for the past forty years and more. They are standard remedies to-day—as well as Doctor Pierce's Pleasant Pellets for the liver and bowels. You can get a sample of any one of these remedies by writing Dr. Pierce.

Doctor Pierce's Pellets are unequalled as a Liver Pill. One tiny, Sugar-coated Pellet a Dose. Cure Sick Headache, Bilious Headache, Dizziness, Constipation, Indigestion, Bilious Attacks, and all derangements of the Liver, Stomach and Bowels.

Passengers Taken off Haunted Ship

(International News Service.)
 New York, Oct. 17.—Detention by the British authorities of five passengers, one of whom claimed to be an American, for mysterious unexplained reasons, a suicide at sea, some ghosts and the constant fear of submarines kept monotony out of the voyage which the Holland-American liner Ryndam ended here today. She came from Rotterdam by way of Kirkwall, bringing 164 passengers.

The American passenger was Ernest Young. The other passengers arrested by the British at Kirkwall were Mr. and Mrs. G. Godin, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Delabaine. They said they were Belgians.

Pickpocket at Athens!

Man From Village of Chicago Says He Was Robbed in Limestone Metropolis.

Whuzzis? Pickpockets in Athens? There are or have been, according to K. A. Murray, a Chicago traveling man, and the Birmingham Ledger. When the Chicago man wandered away from Chicago and came to the bright lights of Athens he got his pockets picked in good fashion, according to the following Ledger interview:

"I had a unique experience a few days ago in Athens, Ala., where I attended a county fair," said K. A. Murray, of Chicago, who is visiting Birmingham. "My pocket was picked, and it was picked so cleverly that I was not aware of it until long after I had left the fair, and was starting to pay my hotel bill, preparatory to leaving the place.

"To appreciate the feeling which beset me, one must have the experience. It is indescribable. If you ever have gone without food three days, and experienced the gnawing pain which accompanies it, and the 'all gone' feeling which is a part of it, you can, in a measure, appreciate how I felt when I discovered I had been 'picked.' It is one of the most unpleasant sensations ever experienced, and you can lay your last nickel that I am making it a point to leave the bulk of my capital with the clerk of the hotel when I visit fairs now."

And you see Athens puts it over Albany and Decatur again for we haven't had that cosmopolitan adjunct, a pickpocket, for some time!

BOOKS ARE GIVEN TO GOWN BUYERS

The Plan of a Manufacturer of Dresses for School Girls and Young Women

A book with every gown is the latest method of combined shopping for the schoolgirl and is the idea of a manufacturer. A healthy, wholesome girl in a school story gave him the suggestion and now there are any numbers of girls who are "doing the best."

The idea of the gownmaker was to manufacture frocks for the schoolgirl and young woman which would suit her type—be simple, pretty and becoming for every-day wear, for a little better afternoon wear, and for evening gowns. Nothing should be too elaborate, the evening gowns should be modestly cut and the prices of all be equally modest. He named the gowns after the heroine of the book, has one house in every town carrying the stock, which takes up the sale of the schoolgirl's dress, and on every gown sold is a certificate showing that the gown is what it claims to be. The buyer by sending in the certificate can have free any one copy of the books which appear in a series.

The idea has pleased the girls so much that in some towns they have formed themselves into clubs of a half dozen or so members, who each buy a gown, each one takes a different book and among them they have the series. There is something else they may have if they wish to send 15 cents for it, and this is the little household god of luck originated by the girl in the story and which the manufacturer of the frocks he names for her has materialized and which is carefully packed for mailing.

The gowns are used not only by school and college girls, but by business women who like their simplicity and style and the ease of getting into them, as they are all in one piece. They are made up to 44 in size, and wearers are not reduced to an age limit. There are now fifteen different styles in the school or business frocks, and as many each in those for social wear and for afternoon.

The school dresses are of serge and come in navy blue, black, dark beige, and dark brown. They are all cut a little open at the neck and have straight lines with occasionally peplums. Many are box plaited from the waist or the shoulders. Some have the co-ed or middie blouse effects, with a little tie. Nearly all have white detachable collars, over collars of the material, and they have colored ties or four-in hands. Many have buttons are used in the trimming. There is a variety in pockets, some being the regular patch one, while others are in fancy design, and there are a few slit pockets.

The social frocks are of taffeta, soft mulls, Georgettes, and silk nets over metal cloths, for that cloth, or its imitation, appears in everything this year. The frocks are in all soft shades and evening colors, Nile green, turquoise, fuchsia blue, which is of a deeper shade, maize and pink. With these are the brighter shades, cherry, flame, and a deep orange. There is no age limit in colors. Kelly green, which is a rich, vivid shade, also appears in the social frocks, and purple has had a large demand among buyers this year.

The social frocks also run more or less to straight lines, but the skirts are full around the bottom and occasionally one has a slight hoop skirt effect. There are fluffy skirts, and some of them are ruffled.
